Dreaming of crackling campfires beneath skies ablaze with stars? Picture yourself toasting marshmallows over glowing embers, warming your hands around a mug of rich hot chocolate, and losing count of the constellations overhead. Now is the ultimate time to camp and walk in the beautiful Chichester State Forest. Winter transforms this pristine wilderness into a camper's paradise, crisp, clear nights reveal the Milky Way in breathtaking detail, while daytime trails wind through misty mountain air and ancient forests. Pack your warmest sleeping bag, gather your favorite people, and escape to where the stars shine brighter and the campfire stories last longer. Chichester is calling. Please always check the websites for closures and other information.

Botanical Dyeing - Extraction Method with Sue Connor - Fri May 23 (9am) approx. 2.5hrs

Be introduced to the magic and beauty of natural dyeing. Learn which plants and kitchen waste to use, how to mordant protein and cellulose fibres and the technique of extraction dyeing. Receive 50 grams of wool yarn, 100 metres of sashiko thread as well as a selection of linen and silk fabric to experiment with. Create at least 3 colours.

All materials, written notes and a light morning tea will be provided.

Felt-Making with Odd Balls with Gill Brooks - Saturday May 24 (10am)

Creating exciting new patterns, designs and textures in your felt using all your favourite odd balls of yarn.

Join Gill for a fun and exciting day exploring the endless possibilities in texture, pattern and colour when you combine knitting and/or crochet with the wet felting technique.

Using both commercial and hand knitted panels/fabrics, Gill will guide you through the tips and tricks of applying them to wool surfaces prior to felting. We'll discuss different fibre types, needle sizes and applications and their potential outcomes.

Visit the website for more creative workshops

The 5th annual Knitter's Picnic hosted by Hive & Gobbler, the event is a weekend celebration of fibre arts, "slow living" and community. A range of specialized workshops are offered (fees apply for these), with the 2026 program including: Botanical Dyeing: Extraction and bundle methods. Fibre Crafts: Felt-making with "odd balls" and Nalbinding. The event includes free activities for children and on-site baby change facilities. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own picnic rugs, chairs, and food, or purchase from local Dungog cafes. Please note that BYO alcohol is not permitted.

MEET THE AUTHOR - PAULA J BEAVAN
REBEL SPIRITS

Author, Paula J. Beavan is inspired by the rich landscapes and heritage of the Hunter Valley. Her writing is deeply rooted in her own family history, after learning of an ancestral connection to one of the region's original settlers. She is the author of Daughter of the Hunter Valley and Among the Grey Gums.

Set against the rugged Australian bush of the 1860s, Rebel Spirits is a story of resilience, loyalty, and the cost of choosing love when survival is on the line.

NAIDOC WEEK

50 YEARS DEADLY

5-12 JULY 2026

National NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia in the first week of July each year (Sunday to Sunday), to celebrate and recognise the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. NAIDOC Week is an opportunity for all Australians to learn about First Nations cultures and histories and participate in celebrations of the oldest, continuous living cultures on earth. You can support and get to know your local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander communities through activities and events held across the country. Check the Dungog Shire Council and Library as well as School social media pages.

Peek Into The Past

Sunday 26th July 2026

10am to 3pm

Peek into the Past is when Tocal Homestead comes alive with the sights, sounds and smells of yesteryear. It is the perfect old-worldly day out for the whole family to become immersed in the nostalgia.

Music whispers across the site intermingling with the sounds of vintage machinery and the clanking of the blacksmiths hammer. The smell of freshly baked scones from the 200-year-old wood-fired oven accompanied with a cup of tea is the perfect warmth you need on this winter's day out. Make sure you enjoy a piece of damper from the campfire, topped with 'cocky's joy'. Try your hand at traditional bush games, colonial family games or watch animals roam. Keep an eye out for the 'redcoats' of the soldiers of the 73rd Regiment of Foot; they will fire their muskets and march through the site – keeping law and order and the King's peace. And they don't mind if you wander around their encampment and chat to them about what they do.

Drop in to hear one of the history talks to learn how it all came about.

There are heritage clothing parades, machinery demonstrations, farm animals including calf feeding, tractors at work, and the original Rolls Royce of the Homestead on display. There will also be sheep shearing and working vintage machinery. On top of all that, there are lots of delicious homemade refreshments, or you can bring your own picnic to have on the lawn.

FROM THE TOURISM DESK

There's magic in every season, but right now, Dungog Shire is calling your name. Whether you're visiting or a local rediscovering your own backyard, this is a wonderful time of year to get out and about in the Dungog Shire. Walk up to Problem Creek Falls from Frying Pan campground, do the Horseshoe Drive and grab a hearty meal at one of the cafes. Walk and talk history in Paterson, see where Dr Lindeman is buried in Gresford, spend a day on the banks of Lostock Dam fishing for bass. There's bound to be something on at any of the magical country pubs—join in with trivia or play a game of social bowls or golf. See a movie or a live show at the historic James Theatre (the oldest purpose-built cinema still operating in Australia, with films first being screened on site in 1912), meander one of the beautiful galleries, or gather from our fresh markets and food outlets and stage a romantic night in by the fire. Dungog Shire has everything you need to make downtime feel like uptime. So, what are you waiting for? Your perfect escape is closer than you think
